Re: Weldon v. Nork, et al., Civil No. 1:CV-01-1098

Dear Mr. Weldon:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter, dated March 18, 2002, to Judge Caldwell, requesting a one-year stay of your case so that you can obtain counsel.

Please be advised that Judge Caldwell cannot act upon requests contained in letters. If you wish the court to grant you a stay in your case, you must file a motion. The motion must be served on the Defendant.

A quick review of the procedural history of your case reveals that Defendant Nork has recently filed a motion for summary judgment. After Defendant Nork files his supporting brief, you will have fifteen days to file opposition to that motion.

The Judge may be receptive to a request for an enlargement of time to oppose the Defendant's motion. If you wish an enlargement of time, the way to seek one is to file a motion, with service on the Defendant. In that motion, you should specify how much of an enlargement you request and the reason it is needed.

Sincerely,
